

Welcome to the McKissock Affiliate Program

At McKissock, we believe in the power of partnership to inspire transformation. We're thrilled to welcome you to our affiliate community as we work together to redefine real estate education. Your role as an affiliate is pivotal in helping individuals achieve their dreams, gain financial independence, and build fulfilling careers.

Empowering dreams, one partnership at a time

Mission

To deliver top-tier real estate education that empowers individuals to reach their career aspirations and financial goals.

Vision

To be the trusted partner in real estate education, recognized for our quality, reliability, and success stories.

Who We Are

From our beginning in 1990 as a pioneer in appraisal education to one that now serves hundreds of thousands of professionals each year, we've stayed true to our mission to help our customers achieve more in their careers—training over 250,000 people annually. With expert-designed courses, we serve real estate professionals across the nation with a wide range of education and professional development. As an affiliate, you'll join our mission to guide future real estate professionals toward success. Together, we'll connect more people to the resources and education they need to thrive in this industry.
